Official Paper of Barber County

The only noticeable change made by the last legislature in the tax law was to increase the expense of administering it.

And still there is no indication of an opposition candidate to Representative a lift in the night. Griffin, in the republican primary. Why this stillness?

It is about time for candidates to sprout. Petitions for nomination must be on file with the county clerk at least forty days before the primary election which will be held August 2nd.

In the event of Gov. Stubbs's re-election, Bill Ryan ought to get a good place the Catholic faith. He is a fine speakpresent fruitless effort to deliver the democratic vote to the governor.

The Kansas Day Club fiasco has already faded into a mere unpleasant memory. The entire crowd that undertook to start a movement to defeat Gov. Stubbs has already cowered into submission.

The farmer who gets $27 for a 275pound hog is rated as a real lucky individual but when it is remembered that the same hog sells on the table of a cafe at the rate of $800, the farmer's price seems quite reasonable.

After all, Secretary Ballinger may yet have cause to thank Gifford Pinchot for his policy of forestry conservation. It is most likely that when the investigation of the Interior department closes, Secretary Ballinger will make a dash for the tall timber.

John D. Rockefeller is following in the footsteps of Andy Carnegie in the donating business. If John D. wants to donate right, he ought to sell oil to the people at cost during the remainder of his life time. Considering the fortune he has made off the people in times past, he could well afford to do it.

And now comes Senator Aldrich with the declaration that if he had the job of running the government he could give the country the same service for three hundred millions a year less money. In commenting thereon, the Topeka Capital observes that it is the popular opinion that he has been running it for a number of years, and it is up to the Rhode Island millionaire to begin on the saving.

Evidently, the esteemed Cresset has no use for the Congressional Record. The Index stated recently that a fat steer that sells for $80, sells on the restaurant ta-bles in Washington for $3000 and the Cresset editors declare that it is not true. The statement was made on the floor of the lower house of congress and the figures were produced to prove it. Now the question naturally arises, does the Cresset consider itself better authority than the members of congress?

It is announced, after a conference ty left the widow and has employed T. with Mr. Taft, that "all amendments of A. to guide him to the much sought-affered by the insurgents to socalled ad-ter wealth. ministration bills will be voted down, Senator Aldrich, Senator Crane and Speaker Cannon leading." This means that no matter what merits are urged by the insurgents they are to receive no consideration; no matter what logic is produced by any man who happens to differ with Cannon and Aldrich on these proposed laws, this logic is to be ignored. The legislation as Aldrich and Cannon The legislation as Alonco and prepare it, is to go through without an row.

Therefore, be it resolved by Naoma Rebekis strictly in accordance with the belief of Aldrich and Cannon that they alone have the right to prescribe the party conduct. President Taft's acquiesence in the program is strictly in line with the president's past conduct on all matters in which Cannon and Aldrich are concerned.-Wichita Beacon, Rep.

An "old republican" writes to the New York World to say: "President Talt's views on the Payne-Aldrich tariff, as expressed at the Lincoln banquet of the Republican Club, are a mass of special pleadings. The speech is even more re-markable for what it omitted than for what it contained. Knowing that the income tax amendment is in great danger, the president did not say a word to help it along. Why does he not come forward boldly and urge the ratification of the amendment? Is he, perhaps, held back by the influence that induced him to take the astounding and unprecedented step of sending a personal cable to the regent of China to compel that potentate to borrow money from the J. Pierpont Morgan-Kuhn-Loeb syndicate for railroad purposes, and that induced him to send Robert Bacon, Mr. Morgan's former partner, as ambassador to Paris?"

Father Lombardi made a very interesting talk in the Catholic church day evening on the subject of the Infallibility of the Pope and the foundation of at the pie counter in recognition of his er and advanced logical arguments on his side of the question. It was the writer's privilege to be present and he would go many miles to hear Father Lombardi on any subject.

A few evenings ago two boys 19 or 20 years old met a lady driving home in a buggy and ured bad language in addressing her. She reported the insult to her husband who immediately came to Sharon to hunt them up. As the woman did not know them by name and has not seen them since, they have so far escaped detection. The lady said they were very drunk, which was doubt-less true, but drunk or sober, their indecent conduct is reprehensible. They will be severely dealt with if they keep it up. Cut out the booze, boys!

Resolutions

Whereas our beloved sister, Elsle Schwat ken, has been bereft of her mother, by death, it is the desire of this Lodge to extend to our bereft sister, our sympathy in this, perhaps the saddest hour of her life. While we fully realize the utter futility of words, to alleviate the mental anguish caused by this irreparable loss, yet we know that it is some consolation to realize that those with whom we are
